

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
7	What is a geographer? Types of geography Map skills Locational & place knowledge Birmingham		Weather & climate Microclimate study- field work Weather hazards		What is an economy? Globalisation Manufacturing Natural resources KS3 trip with history into Birmingham- human field work
8	Why is Africa a continent of contrasts?	How can we save our planet? This will include climate change and causes of global warming	What is Russia like? To include physical and human processes	How are populations changing? This will include urbanisation and the growth of megacities	UK physical geography Glaciation Rivers Physical field work measuring a cross section of a meander
9	What factors affect our coastline? – field trip to coastal area	How is Asia being transformed? This will include a study of a region in Asia	Why is the Middle East an important world region?	How has international development led to an unequal world?	Natural Hazards	Natural Hazards
10	The challenges of natural hazards Paper 1	The Living World Paper 1	The Living World Paper 1	Physical landscape in the UK- Coasts Paper 1	Physical landscapes in the UK- Rivers Paper 1	Fieldwork – Rivers profile at Carding Mill Valley Paper 3
11	Urban issues & challenges Paper 2	Changing economic world Paper 2 Fieldwork- Human geography Paper 3	The challenges of resource management Paper 2	Geographical skills & Decision-Making Exercise preparation, unfamiliar field work Paper 3	Revision	GCSE exams

Curriculum Intent:

Our geography curriculum instils in our pupils’ curiosity about the world around them, providing them with the knowledge which will enable them to be global citizens who are ambassadors for a more sustainable future.