Our ref: CS/Year 11/Saturday Revision

Date: 19th May 2025

Dear parents and carers,

We are delighted to offer a series of Saturday and live online revision sessions for English and Mathematics to support our pupils with their final exam revision. The online sessions will be the night before all English and Mathematics exams and designed for final revision for these exams. Pupils will also be able to use the text chat to ask any final questions before their exam.

For live online revision sessions, pupils should:

- Press the link in the table for the relevant date
- If prompted, log in via their school email account
- If using a phone, it may also ask them to download the Microsoft Teams application to their phones

All year 11 pupils have been sent a copy of this table and calendar invites to their school email accounts. A copy of this table is also on our website here: <https://decschool.co.uk/exams/>
